FIRST QUARTER 1994
VOLUME 14 NUMBER 1

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

◇ COVER: The BEP intaglio print released at FUN in Orlando, FL, on 6 January 1994. The accompanying card reads: "In 1920 George Frederick Cummings Smillie engraved Die #10196 which depicts the figure of Justice holding a globe in one hand and scales in the other. The globe, when held aloft symbolizes Justice's sovereignty over the world. The scales, an attribute of Justice since Roman times, symbolize judgment, used for weighing good and evil and right and wrong. The die card for this vignette calls it "Simmons' Justice". Edward Emerson Simmons (1852-1931) painted a mural of Justice in 1895 which is on the North wall of the courtroom in the Criminal Courts Building in New York. The figure in our engraving is the central figure in that mural." Gene Hessler in The Engraver's Line lists G.F.C. Smillie as born in New York, 22 November 1854, and died in Washington, DC, 21 January 1924.

◇ Many thanks to those members who recently wrote their appreciation of my efforts on behalf of this Journal for the past year: Art Benjamin (SCCS 1032), Steven Feiertag (SCCS 808), and Bill Ziegman (SCCS 1793). Bill is the only member who commented (to me) about the need for updating the catalogue. I don't know whether his comments came before his receiving the last issue with Art's and my comments about such an updating. I will continue the format of the 30% size pictures together with the information I have on hand. I do not have quantities printed and/or sold, and if and when I do get such information I can produce a listing separate from the "catalogue" sections included in the Journal. I am attempting to produce this information for B and SO material, four items of the same kind to a page. Members may wish to photocopy these and/or the card number listings—which could be used as a checklist or want list—I prepared (see the last three issues), three-hole punch them for a binder and, voilà, you have a start on an illustrated catalogue! I have no current plans to stop producing this Journal to work full time on a "new catalogue." I will offer help to any member(s) who wish to do so.

◇ Mea Culpa! In the Third Quarter issue (p.45) the date for SO 116 should read "28 July." The Fourth Quarter issue also had some problems particularly with the forthcoming card listing for 1994 and some "gremlins" in Art Benjamin's message. The issue went to the printer the day before Thanksgiving and a proof copy was never made, the issue was simply printed, as is. Therefore, I had no chance to catch the errors—I may not have anyway—as it is difficult to be on three sides—typing, editing, proof-reading—of this Journal's production. I am thankful that someone else has to deal with the printing and mailing! In terms of the latter, I got my bulk-mailed copy before Christmas—my intent was to avoid the holiday mail—but I have found some members didn't get their copies until mid-January! What can I say?

◇ Bob Hallett's new acquisitions (see pp. 33-37) reminded me of Robin Ellis's article in the last issue (SCJ, 13:4, p.16). Item 6 in the spread, a souvenir for a ceremony in honor of Admiral Farragut includes the name of Admiral David D.(Dixon) Porter, who was also mentioned in Robin's article.

◇ Art Benjamin advises that a souvenir card was issued recently, at a Stock and Bond show, under the name of the "Great Lakes Bank Note Company." The card was printed at a Spider Press demonstration in a limited quantity of 100 pieces. "The card is quite attractive, but it must be considered a private issue and therefore will not be listed [in our Numbering System]."

I suspect we have all experienced concern over the proliferation of souvenir cards. As I noted in the last issue of this Journal, 1993 was a really big year—my annual album is overflowing! If we continue with so many "special" occasions to commemorate with a souvenir card, are they still "special"? Isn't there a lesson about a "golden egg"?

◇ I recently obtained a copy of Gene Hessler's (SCCS 709) latest (1993) book, The Engraver's Line: An Encyclopedia of Paper Money & Postage Stamp Art. If you are really interested in the background information on the people behind intaglio printing, this is for you! It is 438 pages filled with information and illustrations of the artists and samples of their work, in a hardbound 7.25" x 10.25" format. The only drawback is the price: $85.00 + $3.00 postage per order, from BNR Press, 132 East Second Street, Port Clinton, OH 43452-1115.

◇ The New Year has come and it has been quite eventful with the earthquake in Los Angeles and the severe weather in the Northeast. These natural disasters have set up the need for contributions to the various relief efforts. I assume that, again, the souvenir card collectors of the United States will be called upon to support these efforts with our hard earned money. Did you say that the BEP doesn't have a appropriate vignette showing an earthquake scene? I suggest that they take out those remaining Flood Relief cards and overprint them!

◇ I just received my silk handkerchief from the Bureau and it is quite attractive. [Vignette reproduced on the inside of the back cover of this issue. Ed.] The silk was packaged in a manner that it is ready to be inserted into a frame and displayed. This piece is a worthy addition to my silk collection. A special thanks must go to Milt Friedberg whose research and lobbying efforts led to the BEP's decision to produce the handkerchief. Similar accolades must go to the BEP personnel who participated in this wonderful and successful project. Now for the bad news. If you didn't order one, you missed obtaining a superb piece. All of the 1,000 pieces have been sold and the BEP is returning the remaining checks. From an unofficial source I was advised that they had orders for an additional 500 pieces. Christie's, the prominent auction house, sent a promotional mailing to a group of its patrons which piqued their interest. This is not the usual group of collectors of BEP products. How can we get them interested in souvenir cards?

◇ In my last column I asked for some responses as regard to a our annual meeting. I have not received many responses and shortly the Board must decide where to hold the annual meeting. We can hold it at Memphis where a large part of the board and a substantial dedicated core of members will be in attendance. I personally would like to see the meeting held in New York in conjunction with the ASDA Mega Event in October. Both the BEP and ABN will be represented and releasing cards. Please let me know if you have a preference as this meeting is for you!

◇ We have just received the results of the third quarter auction and it produced substantial revenue for the Society. The participants who have been bidding have obtained a wide variety of material at attractive prices. For you newer members, the auction gives you an excellent opportunity to add to your collection at competitive prices. To those members who have excess material, the auction is a way to dispose of it and receive fair compensation. (If you have consigned to the auction in the past and were not satisfied, I suggest you try again.) Write or call Ken Barr to discuss your material and how long it must wait before being presented. The more unusual and rare items have been receiving substantial bids. This confirms that there is an active group of buyers waiting for your material. Ken has computerized the auction records and the consignors are kept well informed about the status of their material.

As some of you may know, I make my living in the insurance business. We, as a Society, do not have the means to insure your material during the auction process. Ken mails most material with insurance, but we do not maintain coverage for your material while it is in Ken's possession. You should check your own policy to see how it protects you while the material is in transit to us and in our possession.

◇ We have received, as donations, several valuable souvenir cards. We plan to use them as incentives for membership drives and/or rewards for displays and exhibitions of souvenir card material—we currently have a program where each member can be rewarded once for such displays. Please send me a note as to who should get these rewards. I am also open to suggestions as to how we might use this material to increase our membership.

◇ As I close this column, I am looking forward to seeing you at Memphis, ANA, APS, and most of the New York metropolitan area shows. John Parker will be at ANA Mid-winter in New Orleans. If there is a local stamp or coin show at which you would like to represent our Society, please do so. We will support you with back issues of our Journal and, perhaps, some inexpensive souvenir cards. We donated several of our 1993 ANA cards and they were distributed to the participants at the youth breakfast held during the show. The kids loved the card and we received favorable responses. I look forward to your comments and suggestions.

◊ Herb Meisels (SCCS 3) advises that there is a 30 day limit to obtaining the pictorial cancels mentioned in the last Journal. The cards must be sent to the Postmaster in the cities in which the shows were held.

◊ Edward Kuszmar (SCCS 1622) wrote a flyer advising of future coin and currency shows noting SCCS participation in the SWBC show in Baltimore, MD with dates of 25-27 March which is a day later/shorter than noted by Bob Hallett (SCCS 1466) in the last issue. Ed indicates another SWBC show in Baltimore, MD for 18-20 November; and similar events in Lakeland, FL and Key Largo, FL, and offers free tables for club participation. Anyone interested should contact him at (407) 995-7984.

◊ Barry Fox (SCCS 499), in response to my query about the numbering of BEP handprints (SCJ 13:4, p.17), advises that B123, B128 and B131 do not have the backgrounds of the regular prints and, hence, are considered a entirely different card, not just a variety as the "A" cards are.

One thing that has never been addressed in the SCJ is a search for the oldest souvenir card in existence. I have been told that a souvenir card for the Inauguration of President George Washington exists. However, I have never seen any souvenir cards from the 1700's. I thought it would be fun to write a brief article illustrating some of the oldest cards in my collection. This article will serve as a challenge to other members to see if they can come up with any souvenir cards that predate those in this article.

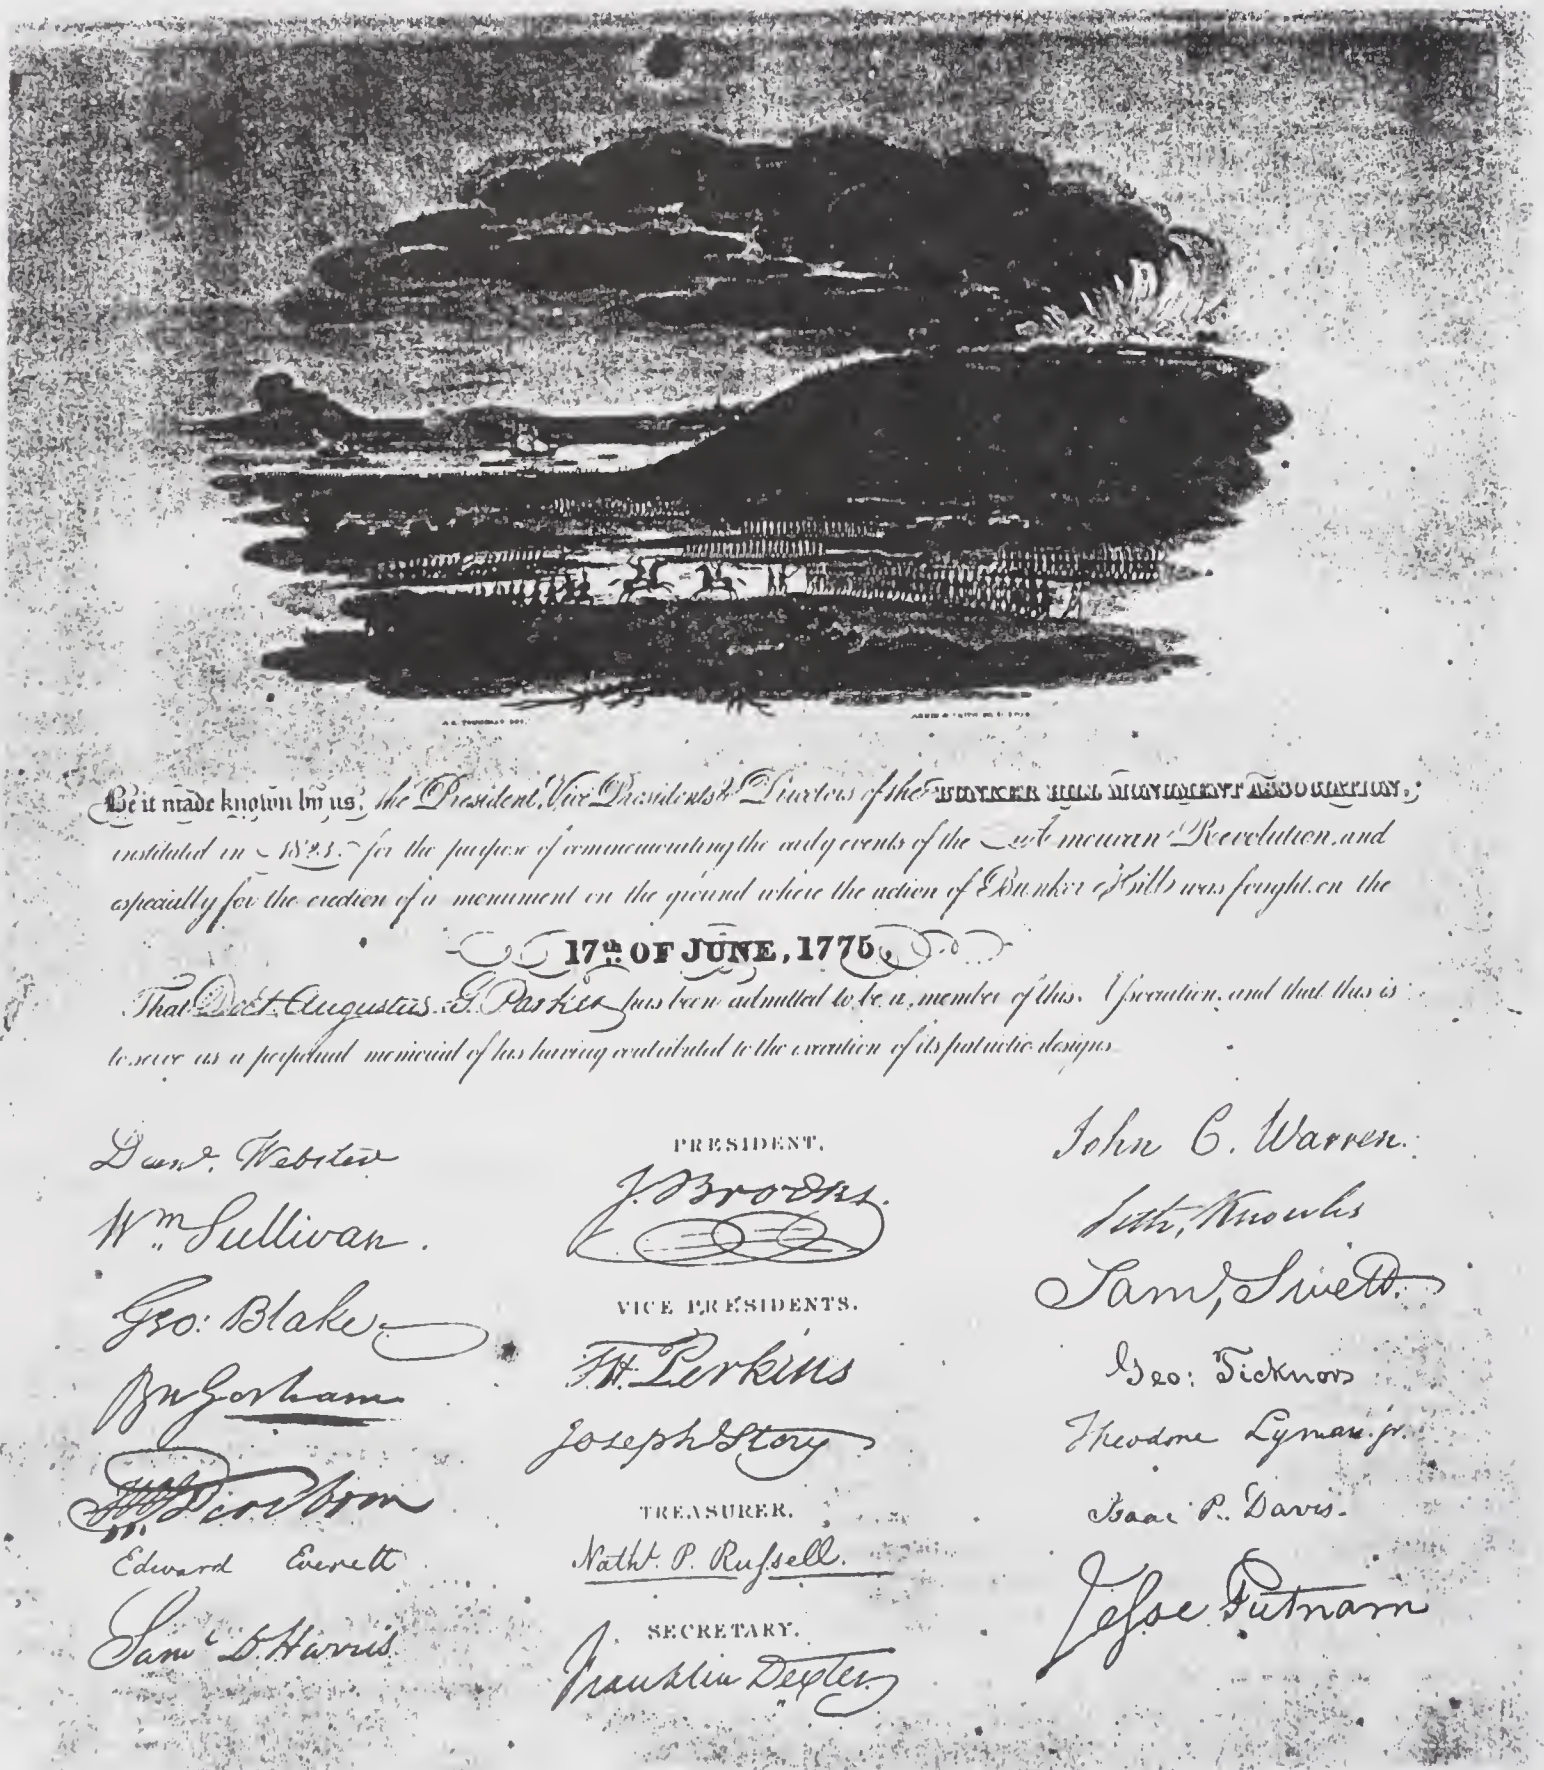

Since the Bank Note Companies really don't come into being until the 1850's and 1860's, souvenir cards from the 1840's and before were all printed by local or private printing firms. Hence, nearly all of the cards illustrated in this article could be considered Forerunner private souvenir cards.

The oldest souvenir card in my collection was issued in 1808 (Fig. 1, below). On 10 September 1808 a souvenir invitation card was issued by the Massachusetts Charitable Society for a special meeting that was to be held on 12 September 1808 at the Green Dragon. This Society was founded in 1762 and was incorporated in 1780. The card features two vignettes of female allegorical figures representing charity. At the top of the card is the vignette of a bird feeding a bunch of young chicks, and a banner with the Society's motto "Be not weary in well doing." The [8.75" x 6.5"] card is printed in brown intaglio and was most likely engraved in copper plate. The lettering was engraved by T.W. Summer and the vignettes and design portion of the card were engraved by S. Harris. Since the club was founded in 1762, it is quite possible that earlier cards were issued by this organization.

The next oldest card in my collection is a large souvenir certificate issued in 1823 by the Bunker Hill Monument Association (Fig. 2, below). At the top of this certificate is a large vignette of the "action of Bunker Hill" which occurred on 17 June 1775. At the bottom of the card are engraved reproductions of the signatures of various association members, including Daniel Webster, Edward Everett, George Blake and other notables. This particular certificate is printed in black intaglio.

Illustrated (Fig. 3, below left) is an engraved souvenir cards issued in 1829 for a special "Military Garden" celebrating the Battle of New Orleans. This particular card [3.625" x 5"] features a vignette of Andrew Jackson and fancy script text in black intaglio. On the back of the card are several signatures of some of the managers of this particular event which was held on 8 January 1829. The printer is unknown.

In 1836 a souvenir card was issued featuring the 1829 Inaugural Address of President Andrew Jackson. Andrew Jackson was re-elected in 1832 and completed his second term in 1836 the year of the release of this souvenir card (Fig. 4, below right). It features a vignette of Jackson along with historical text concerning his past followed by the full text of his Inaugural address. This is engraved in black intaglio by B. Bailey of Philadelphia. This most likely was the same Bailey of the future Bailey, Banks, and Biddle Company of Philadelphia. The card is printed on white glossy card stock and is rather scarce. I only know of two of these in existence. It is listed as FSO 1836 A in the SCCS Numbering System.

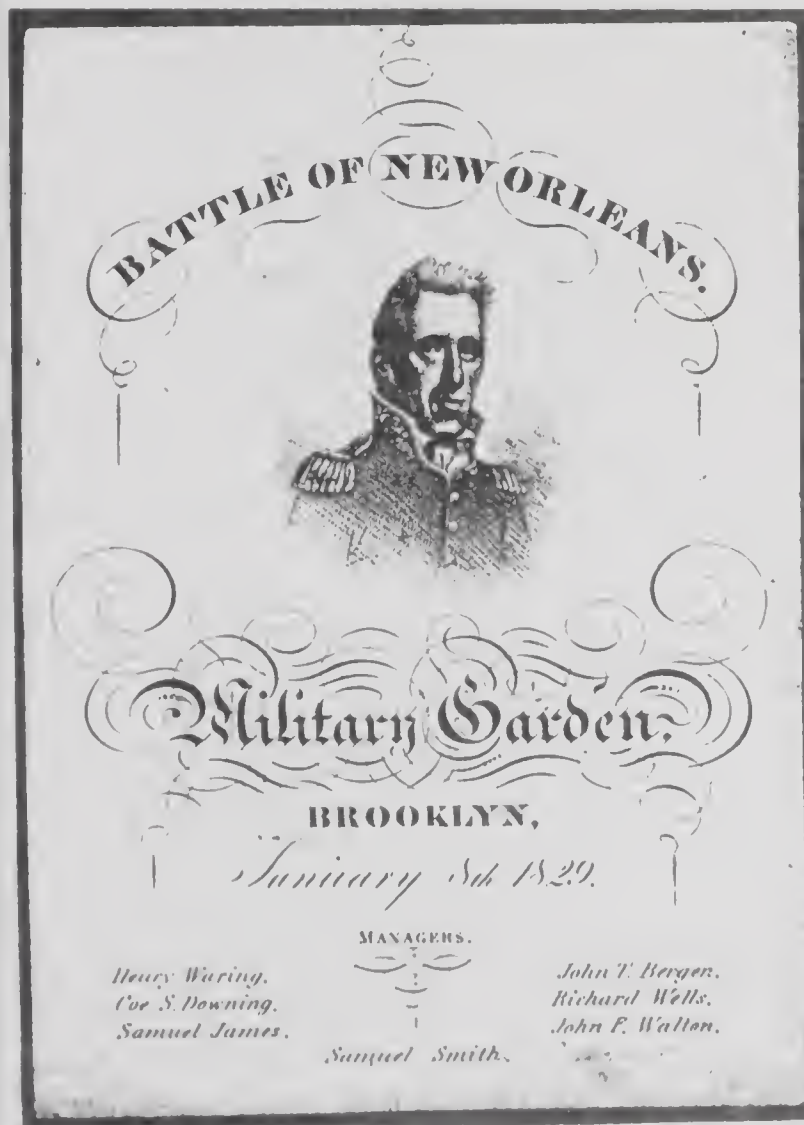

Fig. 3: Battle of New Orleans' "Military Garden"

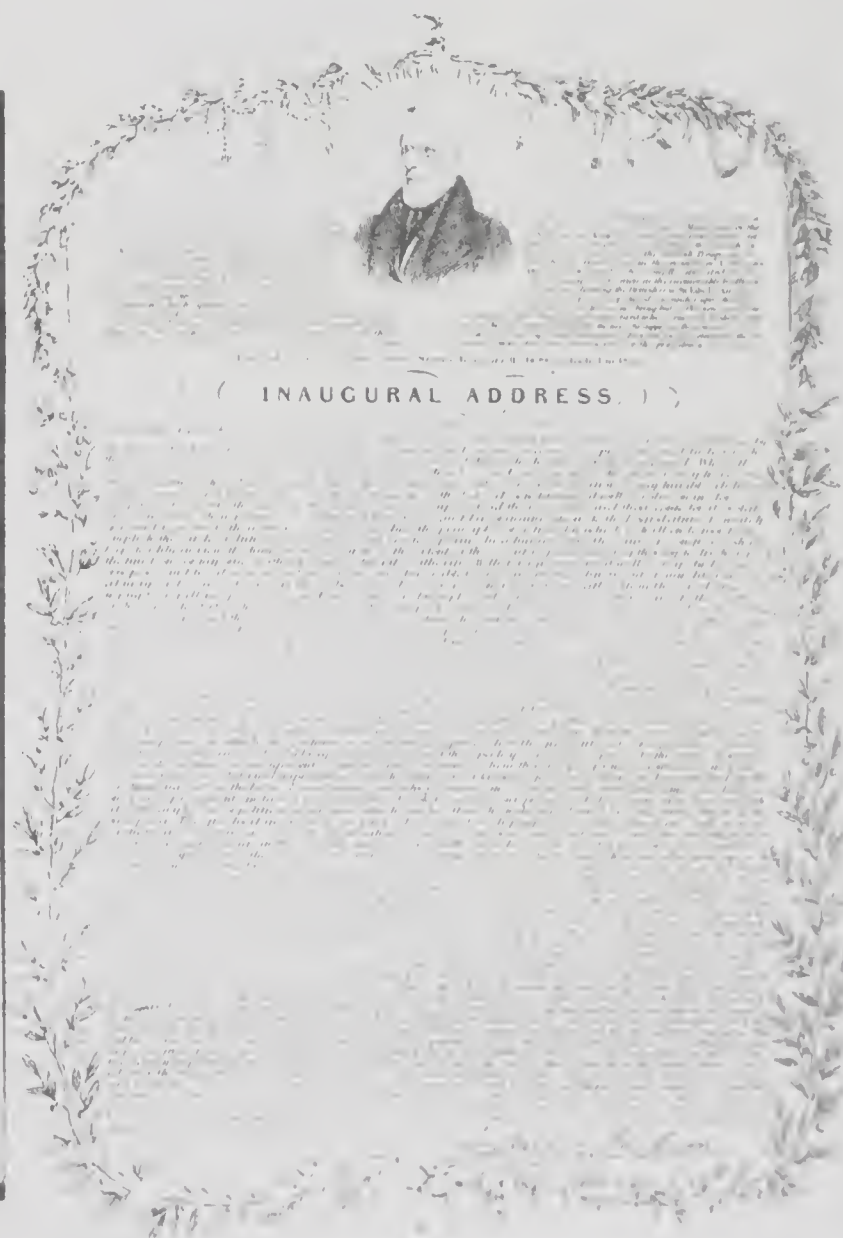

Fig. 4: Jackson 1829 Inaugural Address card of 1836

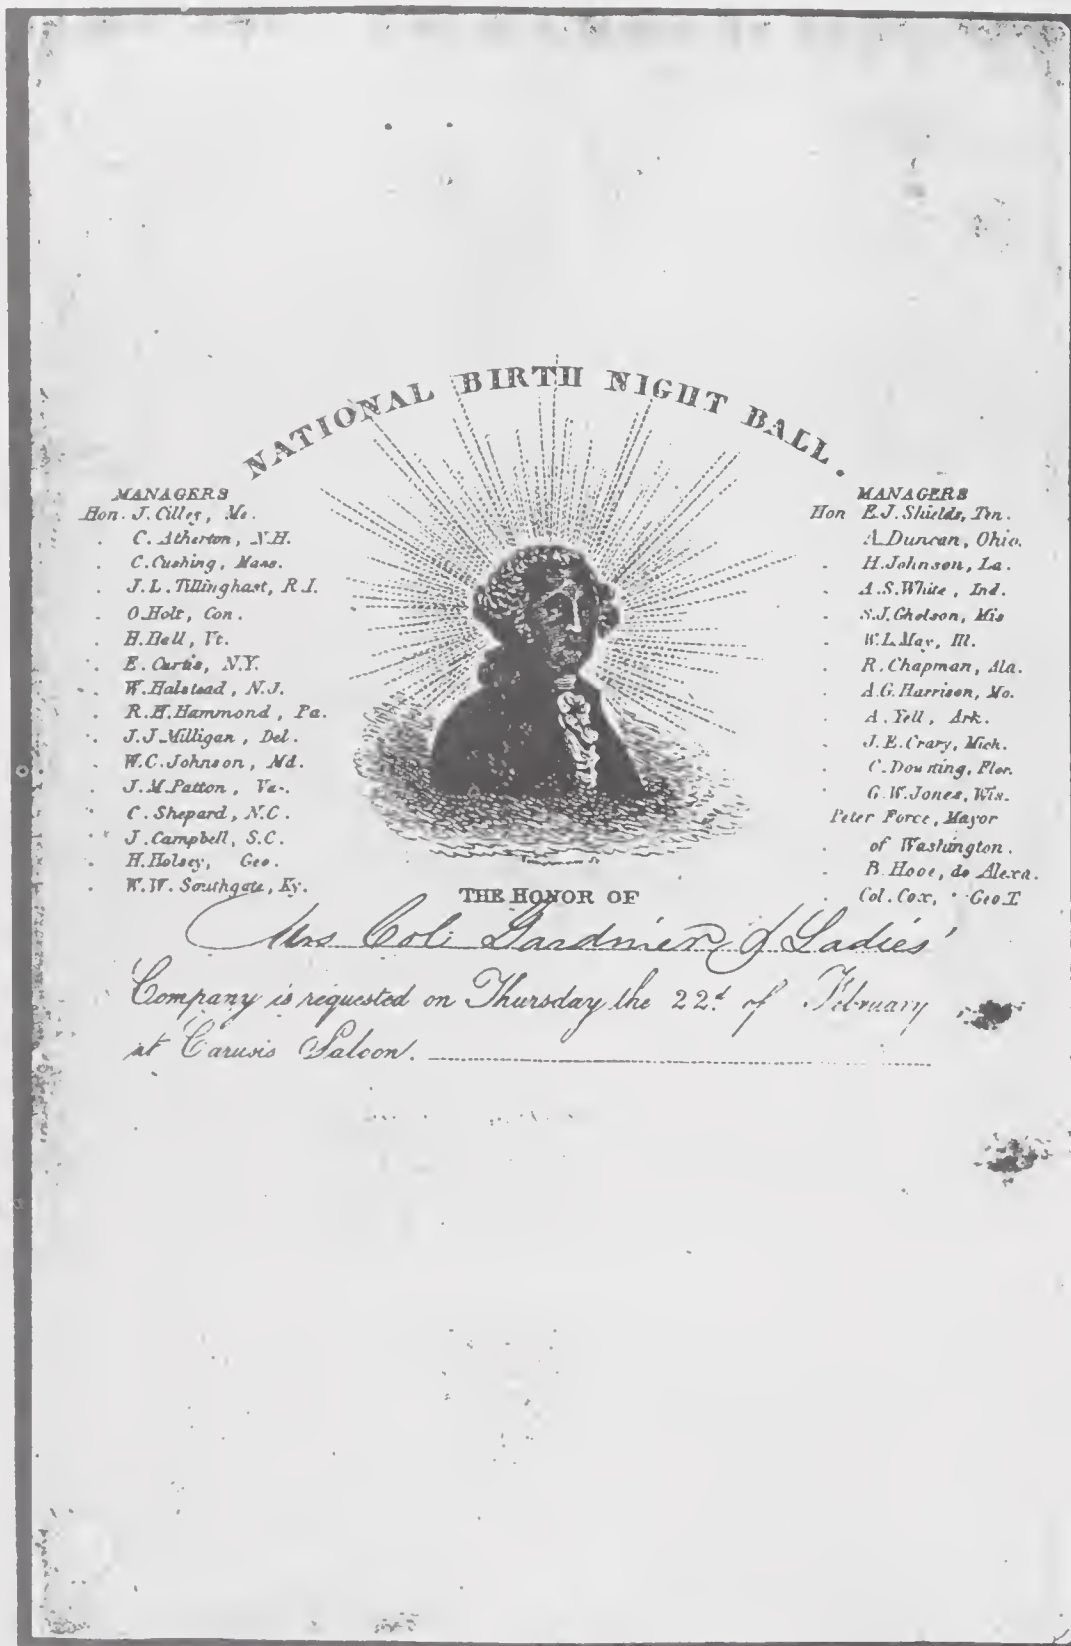

Fig. 5: National Birth Night Ball

An invitation for a National Birth Night Ball held on 22 February at Carus's Saloon in New York City is shown (Fig. 5, left). Unfortunately, the year of this event was not recorded on the [4.75" x 7.5"] card. I estimate that it was printed in the 1830's or 1840's. It features an engraved portrait of George Washington as well as lists of the managers of this event and text concerning this event all in black intaglio.

A similar souvenir card [4.375" x 6.75"] issued in 1844 (Fig. 6, left opposite) was issued for the Jefferson Association Annual Ball held on 17 December 1844. This particular card served not only as an invitation but also as a ladies' ticket. It too is printed in black intaglio on cream colored stock. The printer is unknown.

A proof of an engraved ribbon (Fig. 7, right opposite) issued for the Inauguration of President William Harrison is not actually a souvenir card. It features a vignette of a woman with an anchor, portraits of Harrison, George Washington, and another unidentified individual. In addition, there is a vignette at the bottom of Harrison's birth place, a log cabin. This engraving was printed in black intaglio and was most likely printed by one of the predecessor bank note companies although there is no printer identification on the proof.

A large certificate (Fig. 8, opposite page) issued by the Son's of Temperance in 1845 indicates that a particular Henry Atkins was initiated and has become a member of that group. The vignette at the top shows a man comforting a woman whose husband lays sick in bed. The vignette and the text are printed in black intaglio, steel-engraved by W.H. Dougat.

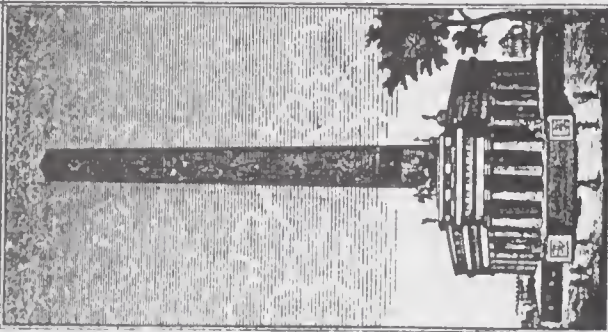

Another souvenir card (Fig. 9, below) is a certificate issued in 1857 by the Association of Franklin Medal Scholars to a Mr. Henry Ripley who had paid one dollar to become a member. This certificate was printed in black intaglio by L.H. Bradford and Company. Interestingly, the certificate is signed by Edward Everett who was president of the Association and a well-known orator and Senator of the time. [For space reasons, this card is inserted here, i.e., out of chronological order with the next card. Ed.]

The last souvenir card in this article issued in the 1840's (Fig. 10, following page) by the Washington National Monument Society is a certificate to help raise contributions for the National Monument in Washington, DC. It shows vignettes of George Washington, two allegorical figures, and two preliminary designs for the monument. The certificate was black offset lithographed by E. Weber and Company of Baltimore on thin, white tissue paper.

The items illustrated in this article were issued between 1808 and 1857. I would like to hear from any members who have other old material in their collections and would like to share them in the pages of this Journal. I thank Mr. James Thompson (SCCS 603) for illustrations of several of the cards included herein which are part of his collection.

My last article [see SCJ 13:2, pp.6-10] did not include any baseball or football sports-related souvenir cards. This article will discuss the baseball-related cards issued by local USPS branches.

I have not been a baseball fan since the Brooklyn Dodgers deserted my hometown for some other area of the country, nor do I collect baseball cards or baseball-related stamps. However, I do have a fair collection of baseball related souvenir cards.

Baseball souvenir cards have been issued for a wide variety of reasons. The first card was issued in July 1984 at the All-Star Game at Candlestick Park, San Francisco. This card was initiated by Horace Hinshaw, the Manager of Communications for the San Francisco USPS. Distributed to baseball fans during the San Francisco games, 40,000 unstamped, orange-colored cards were made available for the pictorial cancel (with the fan buying and affixing the appropriate stamps).

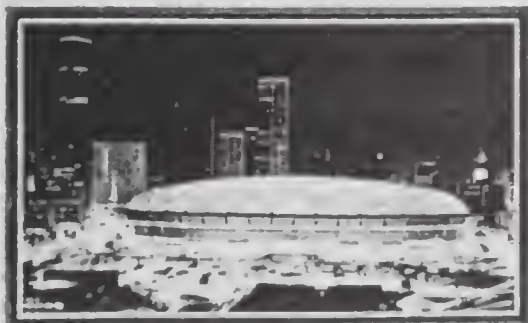

In October 1984, the San Diego USPS began what has become a long tradition in San Diego by issuing its first baseball souvenir card—for the National League Playoffs and World Series.

Paul Kahn of the San Diego USPS—who, by the way, is still involved with producing souvenir cards for the San Diego USPS—and Andy Strassberg, Marketing Director of the Padres Organization, collaborated to issue this card. During the playoffs, 15,000 of these 5" x 7" cards were sold for $1 each, and another 20,000 were sold during the two days of the World Series. Although the card was the same for both events, the card stock color and pictorial cancels were different.

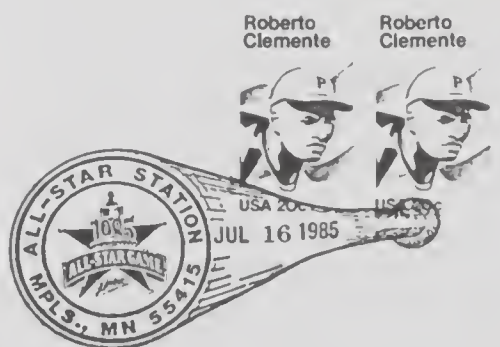

In April 1985—and every year since 1985—San Diego has issued a souvenir card for the Padres' "Home Opener" baseball games. These have come about as a result of collaborations between the USPS and the Padres Organization, according to Elten Schille, a Vice President of the Padres. These cards were sold for $1 each, except for the 1993 card which cost $2.

In July 1985, Minneapolis issued a 8.5" x 5.5", light blue card (Fig. 1, reduced below) for the 1985 All-Star Game held at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. This card was initiated by Bill Brown of the Minneapolis USPS. Then, in July 1986, Houston issued a 5.5" x 8.5" card for the 1986 All-Star Game at the Astrodome. These cards were sold for 35¢ each.

In 1987, Indianapolis hosted the Tenth Annual Pan American Games. A set of ten cards (all the same card) with 33 pictorial cancels were briefly sold by the National USPS and the Indianapolis USPS during the Games. One of the cancels used on this card commemorated baseball.

In October 1987, Minneapolis again issued a souvenir card for the World Series. Two different pictorial cancels were used with this card—one on 17-18 October and one on 24-25 October. The second cancel replaced the original World Series cancel, which used the logo of the Minnesota Twins, because of possible trademark infringement.

The issuing of the Lou Gehrig commemorative on 10 June 1989, triggered a number of Lou Gehrig and baseball souvenir cards. The Cooperstown, NY USPS issued an "Iron Horse" folder which included two folded cards that gave information about Lou Gehrig and included a FD canceled stamp, and sold 5,000 for $5. each. Cooperstown also issued a 3.5" x 5.5", plastic-coated card with a FD canceled stamp and a representation of the Gehrig stamp on its reverse side.

The Bronx, NY USPS (part of the Manhattan-Bronx Region) issued a Lou Gehrig Second Day of Issue at Yankee Stadium. This 5.5" x 8.5" card sold for $3 and 25,000 were produced.

San Diego also issued a Lou Gehrig souvenir card on 16 June. It was prepared for a special Lou Gehrig/ALS Society night at Jack Murphy Stadium, and the card was the result of another collaboration between the USPS and the Padres Organization.

Then, on 22 July, the Phoenix USPS and the Phoenix Firebirds collaborated on a double-sided souvenir card which featured representations of, and information about, six baseball-related US stamps, including the Lou Gehrig stamp. These cards cost $3 each and 1,250 individually-numbered cards were produced.

Beginning in 1989, Cooperstown, NY began issuing souvenir cards for the Baseball Hall of Fame Induction Day on an annual basis. In 1989 two cancels were used on the card—the Lou Gehrig FD cancel and a non-pictorial induction cancel. This card sold for $5. In 1990, four pictorial cancels were available for the card that was issued. In 1991, two folded cards were issued (@ $2.50 each), and in 1992 a folded card in the shape of a seven-inch diameter baseball (Fig. 2, below) was issued. In 1993, 2,000 folded cards were issued—and sold out—to honor Reggie Jackson.

On Sunday, August 2, 1992, four baseball greats are being inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame. To commemorate this event the United States Postal Service is using a special Induction Day cancellation in Cooperstown, New York.

TOM SEAVER was one of the premier pitchers of his generation. In his 20 seasons in the major leagues he won 311 games. During his remarkable career he pitched 61 shutouts and had 3,640 strikeouts. He once struck out 19 batters in a single game, including a major league record 10 in a row. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1967 and won the Cy Young Award three times. He is perhaps best remembered as the pitcher who changed the New York Mets from laughable losers into the 1969 World Series champions.

ROLLIE FINGERS, known for his twisting handlebar mustache, was one of the greatest relievers in baseball history. In his 17-year career he won 114 games and had 341 saves. He pitched in 16 World Series games for the Oakland A's. In 1981, while with the Milwaukee Brewers, he was voted the American League's Most Valuable Player and was the Cy Young Award winner.

HAL NEWHOUSER is the only pitcher in major league history to win two consecutive Most Valuable Player Awards. In his 17-year career he won 207 games and had 1,796 strikeouts. From 1944-1946 he won 80 games for the Detroit Tigers. In the 1945 World Series, his two wins led the Tigers to a Series victory over the Chicago Cubs.

BILL MCGOWAN was an umpire in the American League for 30 seasons. He worked in eight World Series during a career that stretched from 1925 until 1954. He was one of the most durable umpires in major league history, not missing a game for over 16 consecutive seasons.

Williamsport, PA, where the Little League was founded, issued two souvenir cards in 1989. The first card was 4" x 7" and commemorated the 50th Anniversary of the Little League on 22 August. On 26 August, a 5.5" x 8.5" card was issued to honor Lou Gehrig. The pictorial cancel was the same as on the first card. Both cards sold for $1 each.

In 1992 and 1993, Williamsport issued a card to commemorate the Little League World Series. Although the cards and cancels were the same (except for the date and the card stock colors), the 1992 card was smaller than the 1993 card. Both cards cost $1 each.

In October 1989, the fateful California earthquake gave us a baseball/disaster-relief souvenir card. Both Oakland and San Francisco prepared a souvenir card for the 1989 "Bay Bridge" World Series. Oakland sold cards for games No. 1 and No. 2 with an Oakland cancel. As cards began to sell at Candlestick Park for game No. 3, the earthquake occurred, and the Series was interrupted for ten days. In order to raise money for "earthquake relief," the San Francisco USPS sold a pair of game No. 3 cards—one dated 17 October and one dated 27 October—for $10 (three pairs for $25). The cards for games Nos. 1, 2 and 4 sold for $2 each.

There were 50,000 cards produced with Oakland cancels, and about 160,000 with San Francisco cancels. A few 17 October cards were rubber-stamped "Game 3 Postponed Due To Earthquake" by the San Francisco USPS and sold to the public or given away to the media on 27

October. Those being sold were recalled almost immediately on 27 October at the request of the Baseball Association, which did not want any "earthquake" products containing the World Series logo sold for profit. Only 25-50 of the rubber-stamped cards were sold by the USPS, but almost 500 were given away to the media.

On 24 July, the Atlanta USPS issued a souvenir card for the unveiling of the "world's largest baseball" in Woodruff Park. This card was essentially the same as the card issued in Atlanta for the 1988 Democratic National Convention. The only differences were the explanatory printing on the cards and the cancels.

In 1991, the Minneapolis USPS issued a souvenir card for the baseball playoffs and for the World Series. A total of 5,700, 4.5" x 6" cards were sold for 75¢ each. The Minneapolis USPS also prepared about 160, 19¢ postal cards with Canadian stamps and canceled both the Canadian stamp and the card with the playoffs special cancel. These were sold for $1 each. The Minneapolis USPS also sold a Metrodome picture post card with the World Series cancel (6 for $5). This same picture post card was sold at Super Bowl XXVI in 1992 with appropriate special cancels.

OLYMPIC BASEBALL

In a previous article I described the souvenir card given away at the Olympic Baseball FD ceremony. This 5" x 7" card was similar to the cards given away at the Winter Olympics stamp FD ceremony in Orlando, FL and the Summer Olympics stamps FD ceremony in Baltimore, MD. These cards (Fig. 4, left) were prepared by the national USPS as part of their Olympics promotional program, and were not made available to the general public.

The Culver City, CA USPS produced an off-white on off-white, embossed, folded souvenir card on 11 April 1992. Using the Olympic Baseball commemorative, 200 cards were given away to Little Leaguers in a "Little League Teams Salute Olympic Baseball" ceremony.

Last, but not least, Omaha, NE issued a 4.5" x 5.5" souvenir card for the NCAA World Series. This college baseball world series was held 4-12 June 1993 in Omaha and 1,000 cards were printed and sold for 20¢ each.

If anyone is aware of any other baseball souvenir cards produced by local USPS branches, please advise me at 163 Joralemon Street, Box 1520, Brooklyn, NY 11215.

We are illustrating here various BEP cards that can be found with a plethora of vignette shifts. [The cards have been cut down to illustrate only those areas of interest in this article. Ed.] The B 30 NAPEX'75 (below) purple block is skewed in a slight counter-clockwise direction. The three B 39 MILCOPEX'77 examples (next page) show the "Arctic Explorations" vignettes riding off in all directions.

If you have a fair stock of this card chances are good that at least one of them shows this vignette displacement, to a degree. It is caused by the cards not being correctly positioned against the feeding board pins in the intaglio die-stamping press. Of course, it goes without saying that the Bureau takes a dim view of them reaching the public since they are not up to their quality standards.

SOUVENIR CARD ERRATA INDEX

William Kriebel (SCCS 27)

I thought it might be of benefit to the membership to have a checklist of the articles that Donald has written—in every issue, except Vol. 8, 11:2, and the last one, 13:4—since the very first issue of this Journal. Almost all of them have an illustration of the error(s) described. Happy hunting!

CHAPTER NOTES

WASHINGTON CHAPTER ONE

Robert J. Hallet (SCCS 1466)

The weather last December in Silver Spring was not picture postcard perfect. The sky was overcast. There was occasional drizzle throughout the day. However, being the "die-hard" souvenir card collectors we are, Chapter 1 proceeded in conducting its first ever souvenir card swap meet.

Collectors from such distant locations as North Carolina, Ohio and New York made the pilgrimage to participate in the SCCS first! I have never seen such a diverse assortment of cards assembled in one room. There were BEP, ABNC, forerunner and private cards. John Denune set up a display featuring his latest intaglio prints. I spent most of the day searching and re-searching each collector's inventory. My prize "find" of the day was a 1905 "proof" of "Oh Those Boys" card from the Boston Plate Printers' 1905 Convention Book. Everyone was sorting through boxes and boxes of cards being offered for trade or sale. Everyone in search for the one item which would make the trip worthwhile. I didn't hear any complaints! I did notice that collectors displaying their souvenir cards needed considerable space and I will make sure that our next show will address this concern.

The final 1993 Chapter 1 souvenir card was released during this show. In addition to highlighting "Souvenir Card Swap Show '93," each card was individually numbered—the card served not only as a souvenir of the show, but also as a ticket for the raffle.

The donations for the raffle was another outstanding lot of unusual cards. There was a "Doovas" card, BEP cards with special cancellations, and the intaglio Elvis Presley card, canceled first day of issue with the Elvis stamp, just to name a few. The grand prize was a large framed print consisting of vignettes from the Mike Bean collection of engraved plates. There were more prizes offered at the raffle than people occupying the second floor of the hotel! When the raffle was over, there were no losers.

Since this was our last official Chapter 1 event of the year, each Chapter 1 officer was presented with a hand-pulled proof featuring William McKinley in brown, together with the engraved Chapter 1 logo in blue. There were ten cards produced from which the officers received seven—the remaining three were contributed to the raffle.

I personally would like to thank each of those who attended for making this "First" a memorable event.

The first meeting for 1994 will be held at the Suburban Washington/Baltimore Coin Show, on Saturday, 26 March at 3:00 pm. Be there!

METRO CHAPTER FOUR

Michael Padwee (SCCS 512)

Our annual meeting at the Garden State Stamp Show, Wayne, NJ, did take place on 8 January under adverse circumstances. The day before the meeting the area was the victim of the worst snow and ice storm in years. As a result, few people attended the show. Chairperson Ken Werring presented his second annual report. A policy for the chapter cards was established:

- 1) The annual intaglio cards will be made available at cost to members who attend the annual meeting, usually held in January, and four additional cards may be purchased by chapter members up to 1 March, after which the balance will be made available to the public.
- 2) A special intaglio card will be prepared for each show we attend, a set number FDOS canceled, and members attending our meeting at the show will be given the option of receiving a free mint or canceled card and may purchase one additional card, which will be offered to the general public after the show.
- 3) The show schedule with cards includes: both ASDA Mega-Events in New York, and possibly GSNA in July. (The second event was supposed to be GENA at Maple Shade, NJ on 25-27 February, but the show has been canceled.) The chapter is also considering a Swap Meet in the fall (no card).

All the incumbent officers were re-elected for two year terms. The chapter now has 74 paid-up members. Chapter dues are $5.00 annually.

Souvenir Card Collectors Society

Metro Chapter Four

The SCCS Metro Chapter Four 1994 Annual Meeting Card (S 1994 B)

The Third Quarter 1993 auction was quite successful, given the material listed, with the highest priced item sold being a B 3 Fresno 1969 for $190. Over $3,000 in sales and over $400 in donations/commissions resulted from this sale. The Fourth Quarter 1993 auction is still in process as this listing is being prepared, so that recap/report will be deferred until the next issue.

This current auction is mainly a listing of BEP cards, both mint, Visitor Center cancelled and show-cancelled. It's another big sale (200 lots of BEP cards alone) due to a still accumulating pile of consignments on hand. There are also Postal Service, Semi-Officials and a nice United Nations collection available as well. Please bid on anything needed for your collection, as the consignments already on hand need to be moved out before additional items can be accommodated!

The first 1993 ABNCo. "hand-pulled proof" serial #1 card (from the 1993 APS show) is lot 1 in this auction. The only other 1993 "hand-pulled proof" serial #1 card (from the 1993 ASDA Mega-Show) will be offered in the Second Quarter 1994 auction.

Please check the enclosed listing carefully, as there are again plenty of potential bargains! I've again included some lots in which the consignors specified no reserve other than our usual $5 per lot minimum.

AUCTION BIDDING RULES

1. MAIL BID CLOSING DATE: BIDS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE AUCTION MANAGER NO LATER THAN MAY 15, 1994.

2. Send all bids and auction correspondence to the Auction Manager: Ken Barr, P. O. Box 32541, San Jose, CA 95152. Telephone inquiries may be made until 10:00 PM Pacific time at 408-272-3247.

3. Bid by lot number only. Multiple item lots will not be broken. The earliest postmark will decide tie bids.

4. Bid processing will be done manually, at least initially, so special instructions can be given. "OR" bids ("bid $10 on lot 101 OR 102, one lot only") are acceptable, as well as "maximum expenditure" limits ("please limit total winning bids to $100 maximum"). Feel free to bid on any lots desired with the security that your winnings will be limited to the amount specified.

5. All items will be sold to the highest bidder. Bid reductions will generally not be made unless noted on special high-value lots.

6. Please observe a minimum bid of $5 per lot. Some lots have higher minimums, denoted as MB $xx in the lot description. Estimates (EV $xx) are for information only, and have either been provided by the consignor, the current SCCS catalog, or the Auction Manager.

7. Lots will be shipped via insured U. S. Mail unless otherwise requested. Postage and insurance charges will be included in the bidder's invoice.

8. Successful bidders are to remit payment in full in U. S. funds within five days of receipt of their invoice. Late payments may disqualify the bidder from participation in future auctions.

9. Returns are acceptable within ten days of receipt of shipment. Please specify reason for return (damage, mis-attribution, etc.). Mistakes on bidder's part are not sufficient reason for return.

10. The Auction Manager reserves the right to withdraw any lot and to reject any unrealistic bids. Consignors are responsible for establishing any minimum bids that they wish to impose on lots submitted.

11. A "Prices Realized" list will be available shortly after the closing of the auction. Successful bidders and consignors will receive copies with their invoice or materials shipped. Others may request same by submitting a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Auction Manager.

12. Members wishing consignment information should write to the Auction Manager for details.

REMEMBER: BIDS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE AUCTION MANAGER NO LATER THAN

MAY 15, 1994.

FRAMEABLE LARGE SIZE SOUVENIR SHEETS

1. FSO 1979A Rawdon, Wright, Hatch and Edson specimen sheet. Stunning black (on white card stock) 1850's sample sheet reprinted by the American Bank Note Company in 1979. 998 produced, all distributed by the company ordering them, not often encountered these days. 22" x 28", looks spectacular when framed and mounted on your den or office wall. SCCS catalog value of $100 is too low, as I've paid that much for them at times. $160 postpaid.
2. FSO 1985A IPMC 1985 ABNCo. specimen sample sheet in blue 20" x 27". A "poormans" version of the above, printed in blue on thin paper stock. 975 printed and sold to raise funds for the SPMC. SCCS catalog value of $65 is about right. $60 postpaid.
3. FSO 1988A Ralston Purina "Almond Delight" sheet, six obsolete bank notes on a 16" x 20" sheet. Well worth the $12 postpaid being asked.

CA residents add 8.25% tax. Please ask for a free copy of my latest pricelist, including mint/cancelled BEP, USPS, SO, forerunner, UN, etc. souvenir cards if you are not already on my mailing list! Also buying selected cards, please ask for my current "Buy List".

On the following pages are several souvenir cards [or vignette portions only] that I have acquired during the past year. Some, I think I know what they are, one I suggest what it should be, and some I am at a loss.

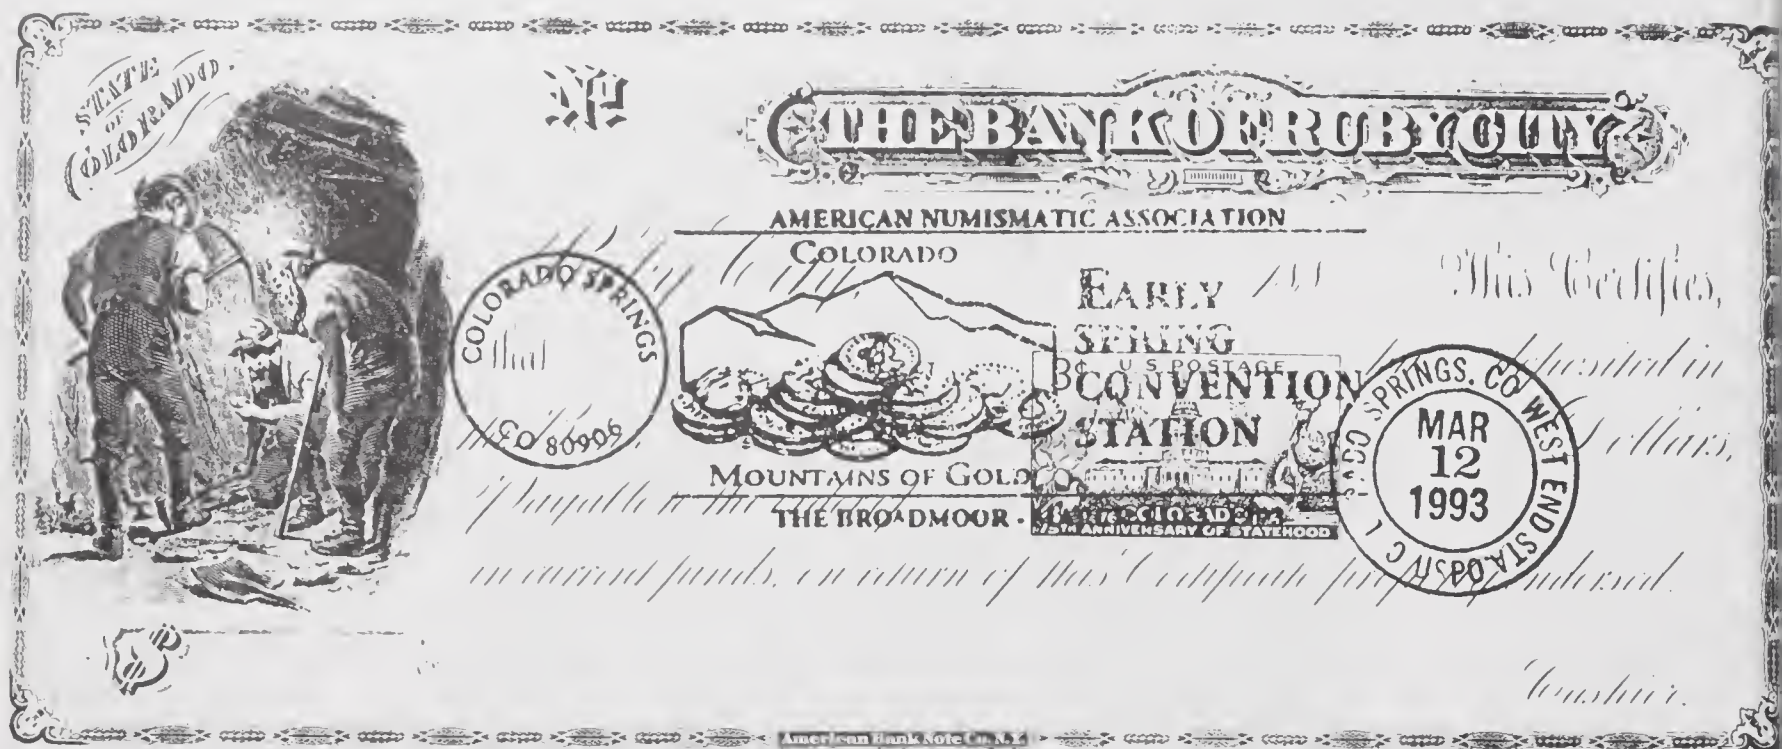

The first three, I believe, are three of the seven cards issued at the 1915 Paan-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco, CA from 20 February to 20 December 1915. Each is a 9.875" x 7" white card with black intaglio vignette.

FB 1915 Ad Vignette of the Treasury Department

Ruby City was a typical small mining settlement in Colorado during the mining fever days of the late 1800s and early 1900s. It was a short-lived camp, so named for the ruby-colored silver ore found there. Platted in 1879 less than a mile from Irwin, another mining camp, the division between the two vanished in less than a year and the name "Irwin" prevailed. At the peak of activities, the 3,000-odd souls encamped in Irwin had several hotels, a theatre, the bank, numerous general stores, AND 26 saloons on its main street. Pay dirt gave out in 1883-4 and the area was quickly deserted. Notice that this Certificate of Deposit could be credited to one person or more than one, depending upon the printed "ha__" (under the date) being completed as "has" or "have."

This certifies that the Banknote Intaglio printing on the face of this document was printed in 1982 by the American Bank Note Company.

ANA Museum Souvenir Card (1993)

FB 1915 Ag Vignette of the dreadnought battleship, "U.S.S. NEBRASKA."

The fourth card [front and back portions, preceding page (opposite)] is an ANA Museum card released during the 1993 ANA Mid-winter (Early Spring) Convention—ABNCo (SO 23) cut down to 8.75" x 5.375." In the past, these cards have been listed in the SCCS Numbering System. Thus, I suggest this card be listed as SO 113 (with the current SO cards renumbered).

ANA Museum Cards:

SO 64	ANA Museum/ANA Mid-Year 1989
SO 73	ANA Museum/ANA 1990
SO 113	ANA Museum/ANA Mid-Winter 1993

The fifth card (front and back, next page) is also an ANA Museum card. This card is the 1979 ANA Convention, ABNCo (SO 10) cut down to 7.625" x 3.625." Since the card was not canceled, I have no hint as to what occasion this card was issued. Do the readers have any suggestions?

The sixth card (top, page 37) was released by the BEP on 25 April 1881 on the occasion of the unveiling of the statue of Admiral David Farragut (FB 1881 A). This is a 7.5" x 5.5" card with black intaglio vignettes and text.

The seventh and last card (bottom, page 37), is a beautifully engraved card by an undisclosed printing firm honoring some dubious event centering around a grave yard in Oak Hill< Washington, DC, on 9 June 1883. This is a 7.5" x 5.125" cream card with black intaglio vignettes. John Howard Payne was a noted actor in the Washington, DC area during the middle 1800's. It should be noted that among the dignitaries listed on the bottom of the card are General Sherman and Admiral Porter. Any suggestions?

While going back over this issue before "putting it to bed," I looked again at the last item (page 37) in Bob Hallett's latest acquisitions. I did not understand the relationship of the homestead on the left side of the portrait or the Moroccan scene on the right. I was also curious about why a "noted actor" would receive such attention from a distinguished collection of dignitaries and why his remains needed to be reinterred and from where. Here's the story.

John Howard Payne was born in New York City, on 9 June 1791, to William and Sarah (Isaacs) Payne. His grandfather, a descendant of an early Massachusetts settler, was a military officer and a member of the Massachusetts provincial assembly. His father was a physician and, apparently tiring of New York, moved to East Hampton, LI, became a school teacher and principal of a local academy. In 1796, he moved his family to Boston and took charge of another school there.

In 1805, John returned to New York, took a job as a clerk, and the editorship of The Thespian Mirror. From his work on that periodical he was offered a course at Union College. His father's ill health and bankruptcy forced him to leave college, after but two terms, to find work to provide support for his father and the younger family members. He was determined to become an actor. His debut at Park Theater, New York, on 24 February 1809, was a success and was to be followed by further successful engagements in Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore where patrons paid up to $25 (in 1809!) for a ticket. His last U.S. appearance was in Boston in March 1812.

In 1813 he moved to London and continued a successful career as actor, manager, and playwright in both London and France, with close to sixty plays credited to him. It was abroad that he wrote that for which he is most remembered—"Home Sweet Home." The song, based on his Long Island home, was used in his play-turned-opera ("Clari" or "the Maid of Milan"). The work was a tremendous financial success for everyone but Payne who had, unfortunately, sold it in a large collection of manuscripts to Charles Kemble, the manager of the Covent Garden theater. Disheartened and almost broke, Payne returned to the United States almost twenty years after he had left.

Various unsuccessful jobs followed. He finally took a job as consul in Tunis in 1843. It was in Tunis that he died, 9 April 1852, and was buried. Thirty one years later, on 5 June 1883, his coffin was disinterred and taken to a ceremony in a small village Protestant church and, the next day, placed on a French steamer to Marseille and then transferred to a steamer to New York. His remains were reinterred in Washington, DC on 9 June 1883.

So the card then presumably shows an artist's conception of "home" on the left side and "Tunis" on the right, and John Howard Payne himself—in his later years—in the center vignette.

I have not been able to determine who initiated the action to return him to the U.S. and/or why the particular cemetery in Washington or why Washington itself was chosen. I must assume that nostalgia for the song or a sense of national pride—the War Between the States was long over—must have played a role. In any event, John Howard Payne was now "home."

In 1993, the "S" designation was given to privately produced souvenir cards prepared by PPU members for certain events which may or may not have had a card prepared by one or more of the primary sources.

INTAGLIO (incised carving and/or engraved—usually in steel— printing)

It should be noted here that not all of the above cards are intaglio printed, e.g., the United Nations and privately produced cards were generally not intaglio printed and, in some cases, did "not fit the true definition of being souvenir cards" and, for the most part, were listed for collectors' convenience. Many of the more recent USPS cards were also not intaglio and their production may or may not have been by a security printer. The Fish and Wildlife cards, although printed by the BEP are not intaglio.

11 November	NWPMS	St. Louis, MO	(SO 137)	ABNCo	10.50	Money

Notes:

- (1) S 1993C, S 1993 E, and S 1993 G are available FDOS canceled @ $ 6.00 each
- (2) This card was released to sale "to Bureau employees before they are [were] made available to the general public" on 27 September at the BEP Visitor's Center. Washington (city) cancels exist. It was FDOI to the public on 1 October with very little advance notice and it may no longer be available canceled. A mint card is $10.00 at the Visitor's Center; $12.50 by mail from ANA Money Market, 818 N. Cascade Ave., Colorado Springs, CO 80903.
- (3) Price for mint card by mail ($5.80, POC). Cards are $4.00 (mint) and $4.30 (POC) at the Visitor's Center.
- (4) Sold out! Was available at the Visitor's Center for $50.00, $55.00 by mail. Printing limited to 1,000, purchases were limited to three (3) per order. See the inside back cover of this Journal (right).
- (5) Intaglio card for membership meeting. Attendees will be given a mint card or card with FDOS cancel. Mint cards are $4.00 (limit 2), FDOS are $4.50 (limit 1). Sales limited to METRO members until 30 days after show, then to national membership on first come-first served basis. Printing limited to 225.
- (6) Annual meeting, fund-raising card. "Wet plate" intaglio of Statue of Liberty. Available to attendees; to METRO members by mail until 1 March; then to national membership. Limit 5 cards. (See page 23.)
- (7) Incorrectly listed in the last Journal. Since that time, the location, date and name of the show has been changed. Originally planned for 9 February as the ASDA Early-Mega Event set for Washington, DC, the show was re-scheduled as ASDA Mid-Winter for 10 February in New Carrollton, MD. ABNCo canceled the card and reset it for this show. The change may effect the wording on the card.
- (8) Cards were available by subscription through January. Individual cards available at the shows.
- (9) Incorrectly listed in the last Journal. Now reported to be in Indianapolis, IN from 8-10 April.
- (10) As of 21 February, Paul Schmid advised that the ABNCo "spider" press would only be present at APS and the ASDA Fall Mega-Event, although they plan to attend ANA and, possibly, IPMS also.
- (11) This show was originally scheduled for 26-30 October. Linn's Stamp News of 20 December 1993 reported that the ASDA changed the dates with "a faxed press release" to "the first weekend in November," which put it into direct conflict—as ASDA also did in 1992—with CHICAGOPEX. The Chicago Philatelic Society was able to make a last minute change and moved their show to the earlier weekend between MIDAPHIL (Kansas City, MO) and the ASDA Mega-Event.

"This vignette of an eagle was originally used on the $5,000 United States note, 1878 Series. It featured the word "America" engraved in the foreground. William Chorlton did the engraving in 1872.

"The central elements from the currency die (Miscellaneous Die #1408) were transferred to Miscellaneous Die #14889. The newer die (without the word "America") was completed by Charles M. Chalmers in 1940. There is no record to indicate the purpose of this engraving or its use in 1940."

William Chorlton (1847-1874) came to America from England ca. 1852 (Hessler, The Engraver's Line).
